Job Description

The Veterinary Teaching Hospital in the Auburn University College of Veterinary Medicine is seeking a qualified applicant to fill a non-tenured Professor of Practice faculty position as a Small Animal Emergency Veterinarian. This position supports the hospital's commitment to providing exceptional care for a vibrant and growing emergency caseload. The selected candidate will focus on the clinical management of cases in the Emergency Service and contribute to the educational mission of the College by providing focused clinical instruction to senior veterinary students, interns, and residents. There is an opportunity for a full-time or part-time appointment depending on candidate interest.

Responsibilities: The successful candidate will have demonstrated an interest in emergency medicine and surgery and in advanced patient care. Primary clinical responsibilities will include receiving and medically managing small animal emergency cases. The successful candidate will also assist with management of the workflow of diagnostics and treatments of hospitalized animals by other specialty
